About Your ID Card

As a member, you will receive an ID card that will include the Beech Street logo that must be presented at the time services are rendered in order to receive the maximum benefits at the lowest cost to you. ID cards contain the following information:

- Insurance company name
- Benefits, eligibility and claims telephone number
- Provider referral telephone number
- Employer group name
- Beech Street logo
- Affiliated network logos if applicable

Important: The Beech Street online provider search engine is updated daily. While every effort is made to ensure accuracy of the information, you should verify participation with your provider or hospital before receiving services. The provider you select may not be available to all Beech Street clients due to individual benefit plan or network restriction. Additionally, the provider may not offer the Beech Street contracted rate for all services. Please confirm your benefits by calling your Health Plan Benefit Administrator.
